

Cardiff,
2017

Bute Park & Arboretum

Cardiff Bay

Norwegian Church, Cardiff Bay

Cardiff Millennium Centre

Cardiff Bay - Waterfront

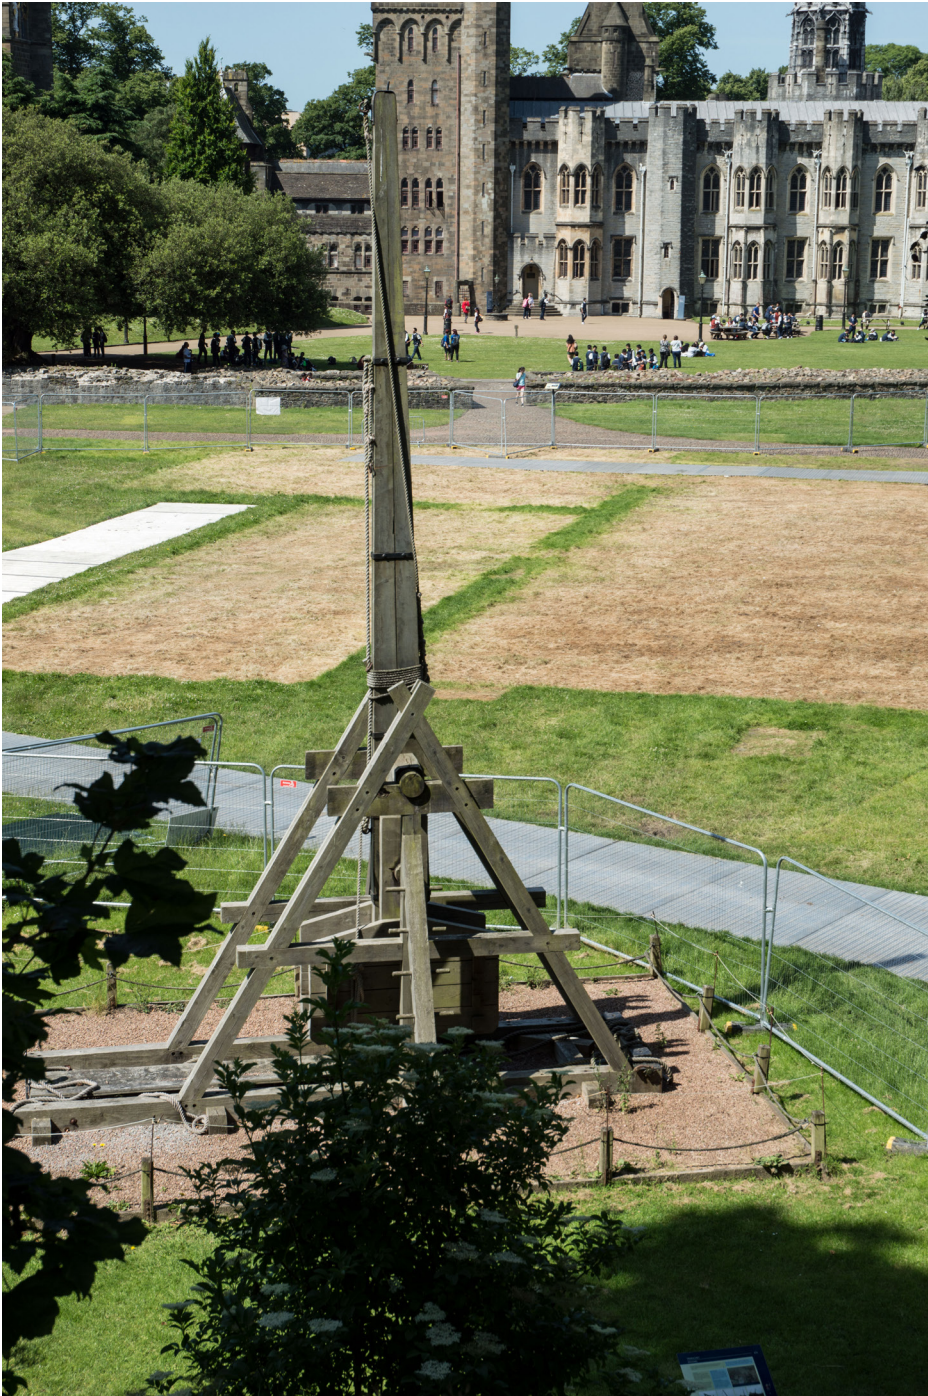

Cardiff Castle - Motte and Keep

The Abandoned Soldier

Catapult

Air Raid shelter within the walls of Cardiff Castle

Mansion and Clock Tower

Inside the Keep

Steps to the tower

Showing the foundations of the inner wall of the castle

Water lilies in the moat surrounding the keep

Rushes in the moat surrounding the keep

John, Marquess of Bute
Mayor 1890 - 1891

Bute Park & Arboretum is an extensive area of mature parkland easily accessible from the city centre. Flanked by the River Taff, Sophia Gardens, Pontcanna Fields and Cardiff Castle.

Bute Park is the “green heart” of Cardiff full of historic and wildlife interest. At 56 hectares (equivalent to 75 football pitches), it is one of the largest urban parks in Wales and comprises a broad mix of historic landscape, urban woodland, sports pitches, arboretum, horticultural features and river corridor. Few cities have such a spacious green area in the heart of their city.